

Happily Ever After ... For Now

The Upside of Unrequited by Becky Albertalli

Avoiding relationships to protect her sensitive heart, plus-sized Molly supports her once-cynical twin, Cassie, when the latter has her own bout of lovesickness. (2017)

Crazy Messy Beautiful by Carrie Arcos

Falling repeatedly in love but unable to succeed in the style of the poet who inspired his name, 16-year-old Neruda Diaz is partnered on a school assignment with a girl unlike anyone he typically falls for and discovers the magic and mess of a romance born from friendship. (2017)

The last Thing You Said by Sara L. Biren

Drifting apart in the aftermath of a tragedy, Lucy and Ben reconnect a year later during a summer marked by their enduring attraction and shared efforts to heal. (2017)

Georgia Peaches and Other Forbidden Fruit by Jaye Robin Brown

Moved by her radio evangelist father to a conservative community in Georgia, gay teen Jo is asked to hide her sexual orientation until she becomes an adult. She is surprised by her newfound popularity, a situation that is threatened when she falls in love with the girl of her dreams. (2016)

You Before Anyone Else by Julie Cross

New York City model Finley is fed up with hearing the same feedback at castings: she needs to take some serious action to wipe the "good girl" stamp from her resume if she wants to launch to stardom. Enter Eddie Wells, shallow, predictable...and just as lost as Finley feels. Finley is drawn to Eddie's bravado and his intensity, but Eddie is hiding something. (2016)

The lovely Reckless by Kami Garcia

Forced by a reckless mistake to leave her privileged life to move in with her undercover cop dad and transfer to a public school, 17-year-old Frankie is drawn to the community's fastest street racer, Marco, and risks everything to follow her heart. (2016)

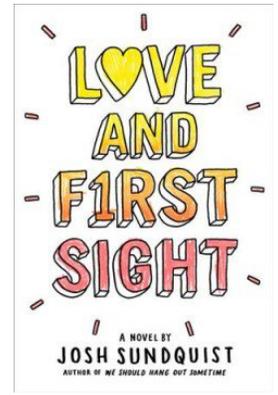

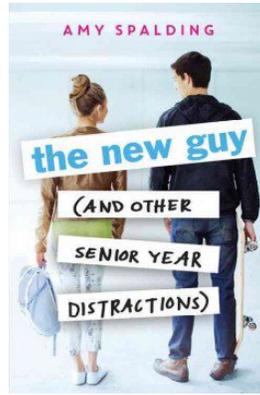

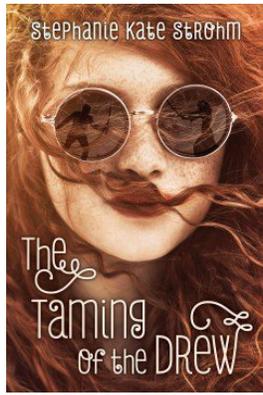

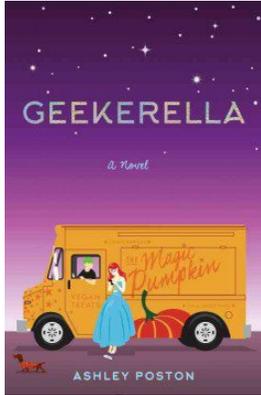

The leaving Season by Cat Jordan

Spending a year without her beloved boyfriend, who plans to spend the year doing volunteer work before returning to marry her, Middie is shattered by a devastating tragedy that causes her to bond her with her boyfriend's slacker best friend. (2016)

When Dimple Met Rishi by Sandhya Menon

A heartfelt romantic comedy told from the alternating perspectives of two Indian-American teens whose parents have arranged their marriage. The story follows the efforts of one to distance herself from the agreement and the other to woo his intended during a summer program they are attending together. (2017)

Happily Ever After ... For Now

Geekerella by Ashley Poston

A devoted fan of a classic sci-fi television series risks the ire of her evil stepsisters by entering a contest to win an invitation to a ball where she would meet her favorite actor, a teen star who would prove he is more than just a dumb heartthrob. (2017)

Grace and the Fever by Zan Romanoff

Secretly obsessed with a celebrity long after her friends lose interest, Grace unexpectedly meets her famous crush and embarks on an unlikely romance that leads her to confront dark, complex truths about herself and the realities of stardom. (2017)

The New Guy (and Other Senior Year Distractions) by Amy Spalding

Jules is determined to win early acceptance into her first-choice Ivy League college in spite her friends and mother, who think she should enjoy her life more. When she is betrayed at the hands of a once-famous, ridiculously cute boy band member, she refocuses her attention on avenging herself in hilarious ways. (2016)

Windfall by Jennifer E. Smith

Alice is astounded when she buys her crush a lottery ticket for his 18th birthday and he wins. The couple find themselves in an unexpected situation complicated by her parents' recent deaths, her crush's absent father's gambling debts and differing opinions about how their relationship is changing. (2017)

The Taming of the Drew by Stephanie Kate Strohm

Cass McKay has been known to be stubborn, temperamental and difficult, but that's all about to pay off. She has finally landed the role she was born to play--Kate, in The Taming of the Shrew--in the summer apprentice program of a renowned Shakespeare theater company in the forests of Vermont. (2016)

Love and First Sight by Josh Sundquist

Enduring a humiliating first day at his new school, blind 16-year-old Will struggles to adjust before falling for a charming, quiet girl and being selected to undergo an experimental surgery that could give him sight for the first time in his life. (2017)

Wandering Wild by Jessica Taylor

A teenage girl from a family of Wanderers must choose between the hustling, rambling way of life she has always known and the townie boy for whom she falls. (2016)

By Your Side by Kasie West

Accidentally locked in the library, Autumn discovers that a local troublemaker, Dan, is locked in with her, a situation that leads to an unexpected connection as the pair overcome respective beliefs over vending-machine food and begrudging conversations. (2017)

Revised 7/2017