SUMMER READING 2018

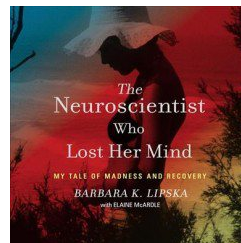

Staff Picks | Ages 12-112

The Dangerous Days of Daniel X

by James Patterson

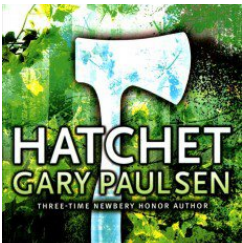

It was a fast passed read which would appeal to young readers. The story had an interesting plot about a young alien hunter, but it focused heavily on action instead of character development.
-Rachel Van H.

The Neuroscientist Who Lost Her Mind

by Barbara Lipska

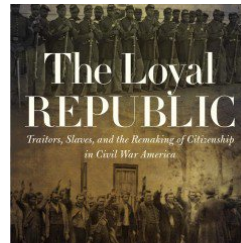

A scientific and personal perspective on the loss of cognitive ability.
-Jenneffer S.

Hatchet

by Gary Paulsen

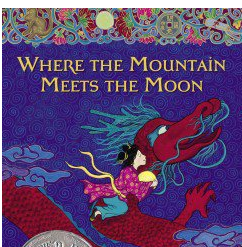

It's riveting.
-Nina E.

The Loyal Republic

by Erik Mathisen

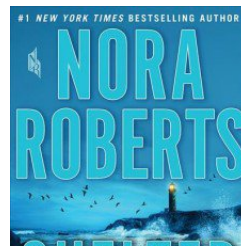

This is the story of how Americans attempted to define what it meant to be a citizen of the United States, at a moment of fracture in the republic's history.
-Andy P.

Where the Mountain Meets the Moon

by Grace Lin

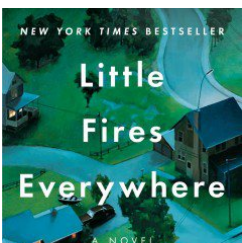

-Nina E.

Shelter in Place

by Nora Roberts

The subject matter is a little rough, but great plot line that keeps you guessing.
-Heather B.

Little Fires Everywhere

by Celeste Ng

-Cheri S.

Radium Girls

by Kate Moore

I am reading Radium Girls and it is scarier then any Stephen King novel!!
-Debbie L.
