NEW! CLASSICS YOU FORGOT TO READ BOOK CLUB:A Tree Grows in Brooklyn, Their Eyes Were Watching God, Love in the Time of Cholera. Modern classics we all know and love - but maybe forgot to actually read along the way. Join us in 2019 for this new book club, Classics You Forgot To Read! We will be starting in January with A Tree Grows in Brooklyn, and will choose a new book every other month. The East End Branch manager, Adam Zimmerli, will be facilitating discussion, and there will even be snacks! We will meet on January 17 at 6pm, and anyone interested in finally knowing what these important books are ACTUALLY about is encouraged to join us. Call (804) 646-4474 if you have any questions, and we will see you there! Thursday, Jan. 17 6-7

OLD SKILLS WORKSHOP: How to Make Kombucha. Ninja Kombucha will be at the East End Branch to explain how you too can make the fizzy sweet-sour drink that has swept the nation. Not only do people swear by the stuff for various health benefits, brewing kombucha at home allows you to be in charge of any flavor that you choose. Class size is limited so please call 804.646.4474 to register. Thursday, January 10 from 6-8

TEENS

MINUTE TO WIN IT TEEN CHALLENGE Teens ages 12-18, you are invited to compete in this special Minute to Win It Teen Challenge! Compete with other teens to successfully complete assigned challenges in just one minute! Prizes will be awarded to all Minute to Win It champions. Free and registration is not required! Monday, Jan. 7 4:30-5:30

TEEN COLOR TIME: Teens...Do you love to color? Come in, relax and create beautiful artwork with our assortment of coloring books, colored pencils and markers. Thursdays @ 4:00
