

Teen Book Reviews

Clutch
by Heather Camlot

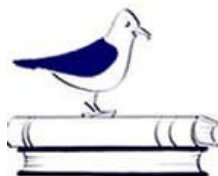

Review by: Valerie F.

Genre: Graphic Novel Fiction

Summary: Joey Grosser is a young boy living in a small neighborhood with his mother and his younger brother David. After the sudden death of his father, Joey must help support his family by balancing school, friends, and his family business. While working hard to earn money, Joey is taught many valuable lessons from the people around him about what really matters in life.

Opinion: The author makes the story very clear to understand and makes very few mistakes. The plot is also easy to follow. I believe teen readers would enjoy this book. I would recommend it to my friends who enjoy reading about sports.

Rating: 3 out of 5
