

The Shadow Cipher

by Laura Ruby

A debut entry in an alternate-history series depicts three kids who try to solve a modern-world puzzle and complete a treasure hunt laid into the streets and buildings of New York City.

Splinter

by Sasha Dawn

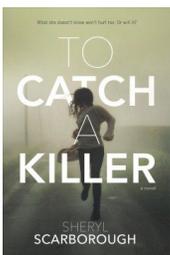

"Sami's mother disappeared ten years ago, and the police have always suspected that Sami's father killed her. But they've never had any convincing evidence...until now. Sami's sure her father's innocent. Or is she?"

This is our story

by Ashley Elston

When a hunting accident claims a boy's life, his best friends all come under suspicion.

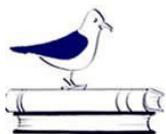

To catch a killer

by Sheryl Scarborough

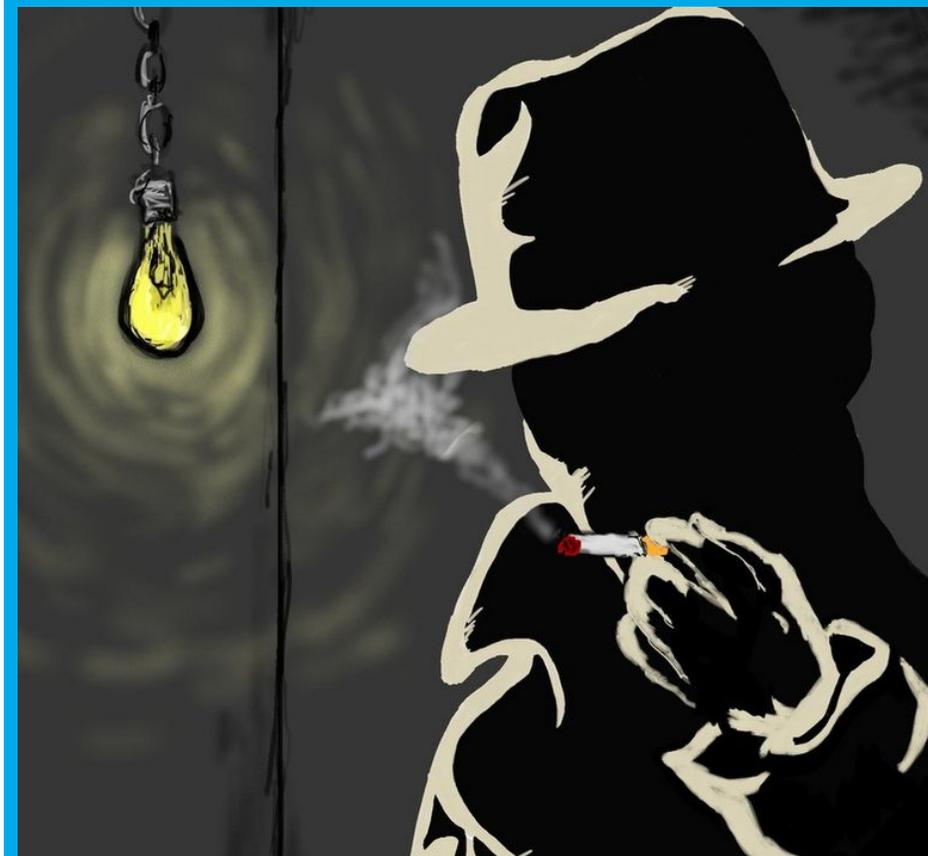

Conducting a secret investigation years after surviving the unsolved murder of her mother, Erin Blake finds herself once again in the spotlight when a teacher is killed, causing her to suspect that the same murderer has struck again.

updated May 2017

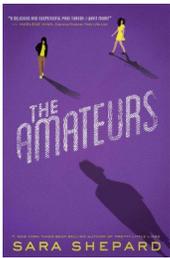

South Country Library

22 Station Road
Bellport, New York 11713
(631) 286-0818
<http://www.sctylib.org/>

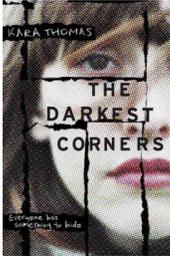

Mysteries for Teens

The amateurs

by Sara Shepard

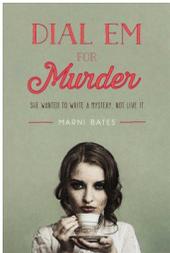

After connecting in an online cold-case solving forum, Maddy, Seneca, Brett, and Aerin meet in Dexby, Connecticut, to solve a high-profile murder involving Aerin's sister Helena.

The darkest corners

by Kara Thomas

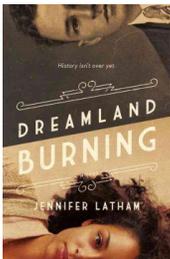

Consumed by questions about a fateful, ghostly night that resulted in a cousin's demise, a death-row conviction and her move to a distant town, Tessa reunites with childhood friend Callie to confront the demons of their shared past and uncover a haunting truth.

Dial Em for murder

by Marni Bates

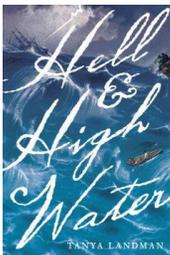

Receiving a cryptic warning from an old man who promptly dies in front of her, Emmy, a teen writer of romance novels, discovers that the man may have died saving her and that he held knowledge that others are willing to kill to suppress.

Dreamland burning

by Jennifer Latham

A dual-narrated tale by the author of Scarlett Undercover explores how race relations have changed in the past century through the story of 17-year-old Rowan, who investigates a century-old murder committed during the race riots of 1921 Tulsa.

Hell and High Water

by Tanya Landman

Mystery turns into mortal danger as a young man's quest to clear his father's name ensnares him in a net of deceit, conspiracy and intrigue in mid-18th-century England. Book Annotation

The hundred lies of Lizzie Lovett

by Chelsea Sedoti

Unable to resist the missing-persons case of Lizzie Lovett, misfit Hawthorn Creely formulates a theory that is disregarded as too absurd before Hawthorn immerses herself in the missing girl's life, taking Lizzie's job and boyfriend, to determine what happened.

The last of August

by Brittany Cavallaro

A much-needed winter break in Sussex is challenged by Jamie Watson and Charlotte Holmes' growing feelings for one another as well as the disappearance of a beloved uncle, who had been engaged in a secret assignment involving a German art forgery ring.

One of us is lying

by Karen M. McManus

When one of five students in detention is found dead, his high-profile classmates—including a brainy intellectual, a popular beauty, a drug dealer on probation and an all-star athlete—are investigated and revealed to be the subjects of the victim's latest gossip postings.

Raising Arcadia

by Simon Chesterman

Seeking to unravel a school mystery, observant sixteen-year-old Arcadia is distracted by a tragedy at home and trying to track down a killer.

Secrets in the snow : a novel of intrigue and romance

by Michaela MacColl

More interested in writing novels than participating in her family's eager efforts to marry her off, Jane Austen finds something lacking in every suitor before meeting the mysterious Mr. Lefroy, whose suit is challenged by a murder that compels Jane to clear her family of suspicion.