

TUESDAY EVENING BOOK CLUB

January 16th, 6:30 PM

A diary is 16-year-old Nao's only solace in Tokyo; in it she documents the life of her Buddhist nun great-grandmother. Across the Pacific, we meet Ruth, a novelist living on a remote island who discovers a collection of artifacts washed ashore—possibly debris from the devastating 2011 tsunami. As the mystery of its contents unfolds, Ruth is pulled into the past, into Nao's drama and her unknown fate, and forward into her own future.

All are welcome!
