Legendary is the second novel in the Caraval trilogy. Following Scarlett's rescue of her sister, Donatella, in Caraval, it turns out that Tella is in a great debt to an incredibly dangerous criminal. He orders her to complete a nearly impossible task in exchange for her debt. Because of this, Tella chooses to play in Caraval yet again. However, this time the stakes are much higher. She sees no good outcome to this situation. If she wins, her debt is repaid, but Caraval will be stomped out of existence. If she loses, she may lose her life. Somehow, Stephanie Garber finds a way to pull a happy ending out of this seemingly impossible dilemma, while building suspense for the third and final novel in the Caraval trilogy.
