Killers of the Flower Moon by David Grann

Relating the little-known story of the murders of members of the Osage tribe in 1920s Oklahoma, and how the new and untested FBI became involved.

At All Costs by Sam Moses

The astonishing untold account, with original historical reporting, of how two men faced unfathomable danger to help save the island of Malta, Churchill's crux of the war.

So Close to Home by Mike Tougias

An inspiring historical narrative, the story of the Downs family as they struggle against sharks, hypothermia, drowning, and dehydration in their effort to survive the aftermath of a torpedo attack in WWII.

Just Mercy by Bryan Stevenson

A powerful true story about the potential for mercy to redeem us, and a clarion call to fix our broken system of justice--from one of the most brilliant and influential lawyers of our time.

Writing My Wrongs by Shaka Senghor

A redemption story told through a stunningly human portrait of what it's like to grow up in the gravitational pull of poverty, violence, fear, and hopelessness.

The Zookeeper's Wife by Diane Ackerman

When Germany invaded Poland, Stuka bombers devastated Warsaw--and the city's zoo along with it. With most of their animals dead, zookeepers Jan and Antonina Żabiński began smuggling Jews into empty cages.
