

Colors

Cat's colors

by Airlie Anderson

Cat spends the day collecting colors, and when she is finished something wonderful happens.

Colors

by Shelley Rotner

Striking portraits of children from diverse backgrounds on vibrant, themed spreads invite readers to explore the natural world's colors, from a red slice of watermelon and orange pumpkins to green lizards and purple flowers.

Dump Truck's colors

by Sherri Duskey Rinker

Young fans are invited to join Dump Truck on a colorfully busy day at the construction site, in a themed board book that finds him working beneath a blue sky during the day and resting beneath a white moon at night.

The Crayons' Book of Colors

by Drew Daywalt

The best-selling creators of The Day the Crayons Quit and The Day the Crayons Came Home continue the rebellious misadventures of the rowdy box of crayons, who challenge young fans to practice color-recognition skills and tap their own powers of creativity.

Stanley's colors

by William Bee

It's another busy day for Stanley and his friends as they learn about colors and vehicles, including a red car, a yellow motorbike and even a pink balloon!

A Little Book About Colors

by Leo Lionni

A latest entry in the board-book series that includes A Little Book About ABCs and A Little Book About Spring introduces the youngest children to basic colors and incorporates artwork inspired by Lionni's Caldecott Honor-winning classics.

Little Owl's Colors

by Divya Srinivasan

During the daytime, Little Owl's forest is filled with color, from the sparkling blue pond and hungry green frog to the yellow bees and purple butterflies.

First colors

by Hannah + Holly

Introduces the colors by asking young readers to feel raised images of different objects, including a red strawberry, a green leaf, a yellow bird, and a pink flamingo.

Dr. Seuss's book of colors

by Seuss

An easy-to-read concept book inspired by and featuring artwork from such Dr. Seuss classics as Green Eggs and Ham and One Fish Two Fish Red Fish Blue Fish features simple rhyming text designed to help reinforce early color recognition skills.

Colors with ladybug

by Dawn Sirett

A ladybug embarks on a magical adventure of learning her colors alongside her animal friends, in a hands-on novelty book that features a peep-through cover, rhyming verses and tactile glittery finishes on every page.

Colors

I See Animal Colors

by Laine Falk

Teaches young readers the concept of colors by showcasing images of animals in each shade.

White Rabbit's Colors

by Alan Baker

White Rabbit hops from one paint pot to another, changing colors as he goes, until he ends up brown.

My Favorite Book of Colors

by Janice Behrens

Simple text introduces toddlers to colors.

Pirate Nap : A Book of Colors

by Danna Smith

Two brothers use their imaginations to turn their surroundings--from a white bandana and yellow coins to a red blanket and even their baby sister--into a colorful pirate adventure before naptime.

Red Green Blue : A First Book of Colors

by Alison Jay

A latest entry in the series that includes Picture This... invites children to build color-recognition skills in a whimsical tale about a boy who discovers a rainbow in a magical world populated by favorite nursery rhyme characters.

Baby, See the Colors!

by Ekaterina Trukhan

Encourages readers to find objects of different colors in everyday scenes, including blue balloons, red tomatoes, green turtles, and yellow school buses.

Cat's Colors

by Jane Cabrera

Explores different colors from the point of view of a cat, focusing on the colors of the toys with which the cat plays and the things that the cat loves most in the world.

Seeing Colors With Mother Goose

by Stephanie F. Hedlund

Easy-to-read text with full-color illustrations present a collection of perennial Mother Goose favorites.

Pocket full of colors : the magical world of Mary Blair, Disney artist extraordinaire

by Jacqueline Tourville

Presents the life of the American artist, describing her early work at Disney Studios, her frustrations at not getting her color work accepted, and the later incorporation of her work into some of Disney's best-loved films.

Mary Had a Little Lamb

by Jarvis

Mary had a little lamb, but a whole crew of colorful animals join them, including an orange tiger, a purple mouse, and a green crocodile.

Colors!

by Jorge Elías Luján

A bilingual book presents a vision of a planet in which nature, words, and the rising and setting of the sun and moon exist in harmony as readers see fleeting, evocative glimpses of the qualities inherent in a range of colors.

Dog's Colorful Day : A Messy Story About Colors and Counting

by Emma Dodd

Dog always seems to be underfoot when something messy (and colorful) is spilt, giving readers ten different spots on his white coat to count before book's end and Dog's bath.

Green is a chile pepper : a book of colors

by Roseanne Thong

A little girl discovers all the bright colors in her Hispanic American neighborhood.