The Best at It

by Maulik Pancholy

Genre: Humorous Fiction (book)

Summary: Rahul starting his first day of 7th grade nervous. Later in the school year he is inspired by his grandmother's story about her success and starts the journey to find one thing he is really the best at. His journey ranges from trying out for the school football team, to trying to become an actor and finally landing on joining the math team where he finds the most success. I really enjoyed the writing style and the flow of the plot because it went fast and had good conflicts. The content of the book outweighs the minor flaw that is the fact that it maybe went a bit too fast. This book will appeal to teen readers because the book covers many situations teens might find themselves.

Rating: 5 out of 5
