Walpole 603.756.9806/North Walpole 603.445.5153

Visit the Main and North Walpole branch libraries for The Road Not Taken, a fine art exhibit inspired by the poetry of Robert Frost, September through October.

September is National Library Card Sign-Up Month!

With a library card you can discover new and exciting worlds! From borrowing audiobooks to streaming movies to taking virtual Do It Yourself classes, there is so much you can access with a library card. Pursue your passions and dreams through your library's resources and programs. Encourage family, friends and neighbors to visit the library and sign up for a card!

Collage Art with Michael Albert for Tweens & Teens Friday, October 7, 4-6 pm, Main Library

American pop artist, Michael Albert, presents a "Modern Pop Art Experience". Mr. Albert is the author of "An Artist's America", a picture book retrospective of his art collection. Mr. Albert will talk about his new book, his art and will teach his trademark style of art, "Cerealism," a technique of collage work made from cereal boxes.

His presentation is followed by a HANDS-ON COLLAGE WORKSHOP where participants aged 11 and up can create their own collages.

Space for this program is limited and registration is required. For more information or to register please call the Main Library at 603.756.4173.

Finding Ways to Reduce Your Final Exit Footprint, Natural Burial with Lee Webster, NH Funeral Resources Thursday, October 13 at 5 pm, Main Library

With funeral prices rising along with temperatures, it's time to take a look at ways to reduce expenses and carbon footprints while still having rich, meaningful send-offs.

Learn about emerging eco-friendly funeral practices, including family-directed funerals and green burials. In this down-to-earth presentation, Lee Webster (NH Funeral Resources) introduces ways we can plan for a more planet-friendly exit through eco-conscious home care practices and sustain natural burial options.

Registration recommended, for more information or to register call the library at 603.756.9806.
