

This Week at the Library

Walpole 603.756.9806/North Walpole 603.445.5153

Books & Friends

Mondays, 2-3 pm North Walpole Branch
A brand new program for adults at the North Walpole Branch! We'll share what we're reading, authors we like, and chat and catch up. Bring a friend or come and make new friends!

Story Times and Wiggle Time are now outside!

Weather permitting, Story Times and Wiggle Time will be outside behind the library. Bring a blanket to sit on and bug spray/sun screen if desired. Please DO NOT park in the the parking lot adjacent to the back of the library. That is private property.

Story Walk

Every day, dawn to dusk
Distant Hill Nature Trail

A Story Walk is a fun way to experience nature and a story! Pages are placed along the trail with activities to do from one page to the next. New stories every month.

Does My Card Work at Both Branches?

It sure does! Also, if you see a book in the catalog that is at another branch put it on hold and in the box that asks where you wish to pick in up choose the Main Library or North Walpole Branch.

Check 'Em Out Book Discussion Group

Saturday, June 11, 9 am Main Library
The theme this month is an exploration of Sense and Sensibility. We'll be reading several versions of this classic. Read one or all. The books, available at the library, are:
Sense and Sensibility by Jane Austen
Incense and Sensibility by Sonali Dev
Sense and Sensibility by Joanna Trollope

Spotlight on

The Carolyn Show and Sneak Peek Saturday

If you haven't watched The Carolyn Show or Sneak Peek Saturday you're missing a real treat! On Tuesdays, live on our Facebook page at 2 pm, Carolyn reviews 4 new books and an oldie but goodie. On Saturdays, at 10 am on on our Facebook page, Carolyn reads the first page of a new book to wet your appetite. If you miss the shows live you can always catch them anytime on our YouTube channel.
