Step Into the New Year with Less Stress with Naomi Hall, Ed.D

Monday, January 23 5pm, Main Library

What if you took time in the new year to prioritize yourself so you can show up as your best self? Let's take a look at practical steps for stress management/reduction, including techniques you can use in the moment to self-regulate and ideas for reducing your overall stress.

Take Your Child to the Library Day

Saturday, February 4, 10 am to noon, Main and North Walpole Branch libraries

Visit the library and "check out" all the wonderful things you can do. Borrow a book, movie and/or Launch Pad, apply for a card (age 6 and up), pick up a goodie bag including a take away craft, sign up for the 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten, and more. Don't miss this fun opportunity to explore the library!

Check out The Welcoming Library Display

Children's Room of the Main Library

The Welcoming Library is a traveling, curated, all-ages, picture book collection that powerfully and uniquely depicts global, modern migration, and generations that build their lives in a new home. Each book includes a unique set of discussion questions to encourage a deeper understanding.

Spotlight on Universal Class

It's a new year and time to learn some new skills. Universal Class is a program that provides opportunities for career education and lifelong learning to our patrons through online courses in over 30 subject areas, many of which offer Continuing Education Units (CEU's). More than 500 courses are available, and patrons can learn at their own pace. Access Universal Class through our website, or through the Libby App. For more information visit the Digital Resources section of our webpage or email Julie at jrios@walpoletownlibrary.org.
