The Library's Foundation

Who We Are

The Decatur County-Gilbert H. Gragg Library Foundation is a non-profit organization not affiliated with county government since 1991. We are governed by a board of directors.

Our Purpose

To conduct charitable, educational and scientific activities for the purpose of providing books and services not otherwise available for the Decatur County-Gilbert H. Gragg Library.

What We Strive For

To enhance the Library's collections, programs and facilities. Our goal is $500,000.

What We Strive For

To fully develop the potential of the public library through financial support from the private sector, to increase awareness and use of the library, and thereby endow future generations with a broad range of intellectual resources.

Decatur County - Gilbert H. Gragg Library

Who We Are

We are your community library, and the headquarters of the Southwest Georgia Regional Library System including branches in Miller and Seminole counties and a bookmobile.

Our Business

The library provides information through books, magazines, movies, audiobooks, Internet access, and downloadable materials, as well as providing community programming.

What We Strive For

To provide information resources which fuel our community's economic engine through fostering a literate workforce, strengthening local businesses, organizations, and families.

Our Mission

As a vital public library we want to assure all people in our community have access to the information resources they need.

What Your Library Needs

The Foundation provides financial support for needs that require more funding than provided by state and local government sources.

Foundation Support

Money from the Foundation goes to support:

- Book Endowments
- Summer Reading
- Adult & Children Programs
- Digital & Virtual Resources
- Downloadable Materials
- Technology Needs
- Facilities

Information...

- is indispensable to our world
