Shelf Talkers are little colorful signs that we use in the library to draw attention to our books. Help us create shelf talkers for our teen (YA's or children's collection). You can create them by hand or use images from the internet. Get creative- try a 6 work book summary, or maybe use emojis. You don't have to have read the book- you can look up the plot or gather quotes from Amazon, Goodreads or other internet sites. Add your name and age for a personal touch if desired.

* The book you select must be one we have in our collection. Search our catalog to make sure we own it.
